A Message from Our President

the
HAPPENING

My fellow Fagowees,

What a long strange trip it's been!

I want to thank you for granting me the honor of being president of the Cleveland Fagowees. It had its ups and downs, but I never expected it to be easier than my old life. All in all, it was fun. And that's what Fagowees is all about.

I know Don S will be a great president. We've become good friends over the last couple of years. He's almost as fun as I am and much more organized. (Who isn't?) I'm not sure why he keeps asking to see my birth certificate, but I told him I would show him mine when he shows me his (tax returns).

In the meantime, I've got plans for my post-presidential years.

I'll be writing my memoirs. I have trouble remembering what happened yesterday let alone four years ago, so it will be a pamphlet instead of a book.

I'm available to make speeches. My fee is pretty cheap. I work for beer.

I've started working on my presidential library. However, the bookshelf I built is kind of leaning to one side so I'm afraid to put any books on it.

I thought about taking up golf, but a lot of people complained about how badly I golfed while I was president (sorry Erik) so I've decided to stick to biking.

I hear at least one ex-president got into painting. I don't think that's for me though. I tend to stroke my beard a lot and all the paint would get wiped off my fingers before I was finished.

I'd like to learn to kitesurf but Richard Branson won't return my calls. It looks like I'll have to settle for Mike Kupiec teaching me to windsurf.

Maybe I'll learn to ski...

Cheers!
Bill

All Day Festival Fun Offered at The Hooley on Kamm's Corners™

In Ireland “hooley” is a word for a lively gathering. In Cleveland, The Hooley™ is West Park’s annual day-long block party. On Saturday, May 13 from 12 to 8 p.m., The Hooley on Kamm’s Corners™ (Lorain Avenue from West 165th to Rocky River Drive) kicks off Cleveland’s robust community festival season with crafts, live music, dancing, pipes and drums and plenty of family fun. “So many people’s lives have intersected with this West Park neighborhood that we think of The Hooley as a giant homecoming celebration. There is no charge to enter this event.

Everyone knows that good food is the key to any good party and The Hooley™ is no exception. In addition to the diverse fare available at the pubs and eateries lining Lorain Avenue, kettle corn, ice cream, freshly squeezed lemonade and other festival staples will be available. “If you’re looking for something substantial for lunch or dinner, The Hooley’s newest culinary offerings include Hatfield’s Goode Grub, The Hub, and BOMBA Tacos,” said Lorenz. Additionally many of the neighborhood restaurants will have booths on the street, too.”

Two entertainment stages will showcase a variety of musical acts and performers. The main stage features artists who play everything from Celtic to classic rock and the Dollar Bank Family Stage will be home-base for high-spirited Irish dancers, high-kicking karate students, and other acts.

The opening ceremony begins at noon on the main stage at Rocky River Drive, facing east on Lorain Avenue. Here's the entertainment in order of appearance: The Pipes and Drums of the Cleveland Police; Brigid’s Cross (Celtic), Tie Dye Harvest (Classic Rock and originals), Cleveland Firefighters Memorial Pipes and Drums, Tie Dye Harvest, Harp City (Celtic and Rock), and The Sunrise Jones close out the evening.
